

RACIAL DISPARITIES IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

Oct 13 | Oct 20 | Nov 3
10:15am-12:15pm | Borgwardt Hall

Caring for Social Justice (C4SJ) will present three two-hour workshops in Fall 2019. This series explores Racial Disparities in the Criminal Justice System and is designed to educate the general public on mass incarceration and the criminal justice system in general. It expands upon a forum on mass incarceration presented at Bethel in April 2019 by Dr. Karen Reece, who will also offer this series.

October 13

Mass Incarceration Defined: What's the Problem?

October 20

The Prison System: Purpose & Programming

Wisconsin prison system, purpose and inmate experiences

November 3

Community Corrections: Life after Prison

Wisconsin's community corrections system: probation, parole, extended supervision

Karen Reece is VP of Research and Education at Nehemiah Community Development Corporation. Dr. Reece does strategic planning and manages a continuous evaluation program to ensure quality control. She runs an annual public workshop series on the criminal justice system highlighting racial disparities, provides training on request throughout the community, and teaches a UW course on the Intersection of Health Care and Incarceration. Her diverse range of interests and skills span science, arts and community building.
